Description
Close to the heart of Ora, this family house sits among village homes and open parcels of land, with the village centre within easy reach. Beyond the village, the countryside opens up: Kionia peak, Kalavasos Lake and the heritage village of Fikardou are all a drive away, inviting slow weekends out in the hills.

The ground floor is made for everyday living, with a kitchen, a living room and a separate dining room, joined by a hall and a guest toilet. Upstairs are three bedrooms, one with its own en-suite, and a family bathroom, keeping the sleeping quarters apart from the life of the house below.

Alongside the house comes an adjoining field of 801 m² in a residential zone, adding sizeable open land to the home and room to think about how you would like to use it. There is no direct road access.

A two-storey home, its own field beside it and the steady rhythm of village life around it: this is a place to settle into Ora and enjoy the open landscape of the Larnaca hills at your own pace.
