Description
A short way from the centre of Alaminos and its church of Agios Mamas, this field of 4,406 m² lies on residential land in the Larnaca district. The village and its everyday life are right on the doorstep.

The zoning allows a home of up to two floors, so there is room to picture a house of your own here, with village life all around. The land has direct road access along a dirt road and also fronts a footpath. Open parcels and a few residential developments make up the surroundings. Part of a neighbouring residential development extends into the field.

Schools are within walking distance, and Kofinou and Anafotida are a short drive away. Larnaca International Airport is about 15 km away, which makes trips abroad simple.

A large piece of residential land close to the centre of Alaminos, with room to plan a home in a village setting.
