Description
Close to the touristic area of Polis Chrysochous, this 1,087 m² plot has direct road access along its frontage. The land lies partly in an agricultural zone, which suits farming or planting, and partly in a protection zone, which limits its use. The surrounding area is made up of homes and holiday houses. The town centre and the village of Makounta are both a short drive away. It is a plot with its own road frontage and water, electricity and telecommunication services already in place.
