Description
Picture a home of your own a short drive from the heart of Pissouri village, with Columbia Beach Resort within reach for long afternoons by the sea. This residential plot sits among homes and open parcels of land, a setting that keeps a sense of space around it.

The land measures 977 m² and fronts a road, so it has direct road access. Water, electricity and telecommunications already serve the plot, which makes planning a new home simpler from the first sketch. Its residential zoning allows a home on up to two floors, with room for a design that suits contemporary or traditional tastes.

Life here moves at village pace. Morning coffee and evening meals are a short drive away in Pissouri itself, and Paphos International Airport is about 15 km away, which makes coming and going straightforward.

A well-serviced plot with its own road frontage, close to a village centre and a beach resort, ready for the home you have in mind.
