Description
Pissouri sets the scene here, a Limassol village where the village centre, with its restaurants and cafés, is only a short drive away. Within this residential setting lies a plot of 855 m², offering room for a home designed around the way you want to live.

The land is zoned for residential use, with room for a home of up to two floors. It fronts a road, giving it direct road access, and water, electricity and telecommunication services are available. Around it, residential developments stand beside parcels of land that are still undeveloped, so the neighbourhood already has a lived-in residential character.

Picture a home of your own taking shape here, close enough to the village for an easy evening meal out. For trips further afield, Paphos International Airport is about 15 km away.

An uncomplicated residential parcel in a well-connected village, well worth a visit.
