For Sale : € 144,000

Description
Astromeritis keeps everyday life close. Cafés, restaurants and village shops are within walking distance, and the village centre is a short drive away. In this setting, a large field of 7,024 m² lies among homes and cultivated parcels, where village houses and farmland sit side by side.

The land falls within a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. Its size gives a generous canvas for planning a home that draws its character from the village around it, with neighbouring houses on one hand and working fields on the other.

The field has no direct road access. What it offers is a sizeable piece of Astromeritis, where village life and cultivated land meet, and room to build a home of your own.
