Description
Life in Lysos moves at village pace. Cafés, shops and everyday services are all within walking distance, and the village church stands close by. This three-bedroom house is one of a small group of eleven homes, set among other houses and open parcels of land, and it makes a comfortable year-round base in the Paphos countryside.

Inside, the living room, dining area and kitchen share one open-plan space, so cooking, meals and conversation all happen together. Three bedrooms and a bathroom complete the layout. Double-glazed windows and ceramic floors keep daily life practical. The house has provision for split units and central heating, so you can fit it out for comfort through every season. It carries an Energy Class B rating, and a parking space comes with the house.

When you want a change of scene, Evretou Lake is a short drive away for an unhurried weekend outing. Then you come home to a simple, thoughtfully arranged house where the village is right on your doorstep.
