For Sale : € 115,000

Description
Agioi Trimithias sets the scene for this residential field, part of a village neighbourhood where homes stand alongside open, undeveloped plots. It is a setting that invites you to imagine what could rise here, with the everyday rhythm of village life all around.

With 2,708 m² to work with, the land offers generous room for a home of your own and plenty of space to plan around it as you see fit. Its residential zoning gives a clear, unpretentious purpose: a place to settle and build the house you have in mind.

Daily needs stay within reach, with schools a short drive away and the neighbouring village of Paliometocho close by as well. The land has no direct road access.

A large piece of residential land in the heart of Agioi Trimithias, ready for someone to picture the home that belongs on it.
