Description
A short drive from the heart of Pissouri, with Columbia Beach Resort also within reach, this residential plot is a place to begin a home of your own in the village.

The 713 m² of land sit in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. The layout, the materials and the finish are in your hands, whether your taste runs to contemporary lines or a more traditional feel. The land fronts a road, giving direct road access, and water, electricity and telecommunication services are in place.

Residential developments share the surrounding area with parcels of land yet to be built on, so the area is still taking shape around you. Paphos International Airport lies about 15 km away, keeping journeys to and from the island straightforward.

Picture your plans becoming walls, and then evenings at home in Pissouri. Make this corner of the village yours.
