For Sale : € 106,000

Description
Close to the centre of Pachna, with many Troodos villages around it, this residential field offers room for a home in authentic village surroundings. Houses and farmland share the neighbourhood, giving it a relaxed, rural character that stays close to everyday village life.

The land is large, regular in shape and gently sloping, with 4,488 m² to work with. Its residential zoning allows a home of up to two floors. The land has no direct road access.

Imagine planning a house here, with the village centre close by and restaurants and cafés a short drive away. When the day calls for the sea, Episkopi Bay Beach is within a drive, so village and coast both remain part of the picture.

An unpretentious piece of land in Pachna, with the space and the setting to shape a home of your own.
