Description
Pissouri's village centre lies a short drive from this residential plot, with its cafés and everyday rhythm close at hand. Columbia Beach Resort is within driving distance too, so the coast is never far from your weekend plans.

The land sits among homes and open parcels and is zoned for residential use, with room for a home of up to two floors. It fronts a road, giving direct road access, and water, electricity and telecommunication services are available, a practical head start for planning your build.

Picture a family home shaped around your own way of living: a morning coffee in the village, an easy run to the shops, and Paphos International Airport about 15 km away when it is time to travel. With 823 m² to work with, there is space to design something that suits this setting and the life you want here.

A well-placed starting point for a long-term home in Pissouri, where village life and the coast sit within reach.
