For Sale : € 107,000

Description
Just beyond the edge of Nata village in the Paphos district, this residential field offers the chance to shape a home of your own, with the life of the village only a short walk away. The neighbouring villages of Choletria and Axylou are a short drive off.

The land covers 2,676 m² and sits in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. It has direct road access along one side, and the Xeropotamos River runs a short distance away. Around it, residential homes sit alongside undeveloped parcels, giving the area a settled yet open character.

Picture a family house taking shape here, close enough to the village for an easy stroll to its centre, yet with a sizeable plot to plan around. Paphos International Airport is within a drive, which keeps journeys further afield simple.

A large residential plot at the doorstep of a Paphos village, and well worth a visit.
