Description
A short drive from the centre of Pissouri, with its cafés and restaurants, this residential plot of 799 m² offers room for a home of your own. The surroundings mix homes with open parcels of land, giving the area a settled residential feel.

The practical side is well covered. The land fronts a registered road, so it has direct road access, and water, electricity and telecommunication services reach it. Its residential zoning allows a home of up to two floors.

Imagine sketching out a house here, then heading into the village for a coffee or an evening meal once the day's planning is done. Shops and schools are also a short drive away, so everyday errands stay simple. For travel further afield, Paphos International Airport is about 15 km away.

A serviced piece of Pissouri with its own road frontage, waiting for the home you have in mind.
