Open fields and undeveloped countryside set the scene around...

For Sale : € 99,000

Description
Open fields and undeveloped countryside set the scene around this residential land near Pano Pyrgos. The village centre is a short drive away, and the beaches are within a drive.

Two adjoining fields make up the land, which together give 6,355 m² of ground in a residential zone. That leaves generous room to shape a home of your own, of up to two floors, surrounded by farmland and open land rather than close neighbours.

Picture mornings in the village, afternoons by the sea and evenings back on land that is yours, with the countryside stretching out on every side. For trips further afield, Paphos International Airport is about 50 km away.

A large piece of Pano Pyrgos countryside, with village life close by and the coast within easy reach by car.
