For Sale : € 96,000

Description
Within the village of Agioi Trimithias, among newer homes and open parcels of land, this field sits in a residential zone with room for a home of up to two floors. Its 2,530 m² give generous ground to plan a house and the life around it, in a Nicosia village where the built and the open still sit side by side.

Everyday needs stay within reach. Supermarkets and shops are a short drive away, as are schools, so the school run and the weekly shop fit easily into the day. For a change of scene, neighbouring Paliometocho is also a short drive.

The land has no direct road access.

What it offers is a sizeable piece of residential land inside the village itself, with neighbours already settled around it and space to shape a home at your own pace. A plot to walk, imagine and plan on, and well worth a visit.
