Description
In the heart of Pelendri, with restaurants and cafés right next door, this semi-detached house from 1940 puts village life on your doorstep. The Timios Stavros heritage site is within walking distance, and the green expanse of the Troodos National Forest Park lies a short drive away.

The ground floor holds a kitchen, a living and dining room, a storage room and a guest toilet, a natural gathering place for shared meals and long conversations. Upstairs are four bedrooms and a bathroom. Below, an open-plan basement adds generous storage space. Outside, a veranda offers a spot to sit out with a morning coffee and take in the rhythm of the village around you.

Schools are within walking distance, and the surrounding residential area keeps easy access towards Limassol. The house is currently occupied.

Four bedrooms at the centre of Pelendri, with a café a few steps away and the forest park within easy reach.
