Description
A short walk from the centre of Agios Pavlos, this large field of 8,650 m² sits where village life meets open land in the Limassol district. Around it, undeveloped parcels lie alongside some homes, an easy, uncomplicated setting with the village close at hand.

The land is zoned for residential use, offering room for a home of up to two floors, planned your way from the very first sketch. A public road runs along two of its borders, giving the field direct road access and a long stretch of frontage.

Daily life is never far away. Shops, cafés and schools are a short drive away, and neighbouring Kalo Chorio is within easy reach too. Imagine mornings that start with a stroll into the village and evenings spent on your own land, with the community around you and space to shape something lasting.

Large, well connected and close to the heart of Agios Pavlos, this is a setting where a new home can take root.
