Everyday village life begins almost at the edge of this land...

For Sale : € 86,000

Description
Everyday village life begins almost at the edge of this land. A short stroll takes you into the centre of Politiko, with its restaurants and cafés, and the heritage site of Tamassos is also within walking distance.

The field covers 2,490 m² and sits in a residential zone, among homes and undeveloped parcels. It is a sizeable piece of land with room for a home of up to two floors. Its frontage onto a road gives it direct road access.

Picture a family home here, a walk from the heart of the village. Coffee with neighbours in the centre or a wander out to the old stones of Tamassos would become part of an ordinary afternoon. The wider countryside is never far off either, with Tamasos Lake a short drive away.

This is a sensible, grounded starting point: residential land with real space, set within the warmth and rhythm of a genuine Cypriot village.
