For Sale : € 70,000

Description
Kokkinotrimithia brings together village life and everyday convenience. This level residential field sits among homes and open parcels, close to the village primary school, with shops, supermarkets, cafés and restaurants all within walking distance.

The land is flat and even, with a neat rectangular shape across 953 m². Its residential zoning gives room for a home of up to two floors, a place to shape a house around family routines: children walking to school, an easy stroll for bread and a morning coffee in the village. The field has no direct road access.

The village centre and neighbouring Paliometocho are a short drive away, as is the nature spot of Gerogiannis for open air at the weekend. A well-proportioned, level piece of land in a residential neighbourhood, where a new home can grow with the life of the village around it.
