Description
Village life in the Nicosia district sets the tone here. In Palaiometocho, this field of 1,941 m² sits among open parcels of land and scattered homes, with the village centre a short drive away.

The land lies in a residential zone, so it offers room for a home of up to two floors. With so much of the surrounding land still undeveloped, it is easy to picture how a house might settle into this setting and how a household could grow into village life around it.

Everyday needs stay close at hand: schools and local shops are nearby, and the green surroundings of Lefkovounos are a short drive away for a weekend outing. The field has no direct road access.

A sizeable residential plot in Palaiometocho, where a home of your own could take shape in an unpretentious village setting.
