Description
Picture everyday life in Kalo Chorio Oreinis, with the heart of the village just a walk from your own patch of land. This residential field sits among homes and undeveloped parcels, so the neighbourhood feels settled while still keeping some open space around it.

The land measures 658 m² and fronts a road, which gives it direct road access. Its residential zoning leaves room for a home of up to two floors. It is a simple, no-nonsense plot whose purpose is clear from the start.

Village life sets the rhythm here. A stroll takes you into the centre, and for a slower weekend the lake at the Mitsero mines is within a drive.

An honest piece of village land, waiting for the house you have in mind.
