Description
Close to the heart of Vavla, this field sits where village life meets open countryside. Around it lies a gentle mix of undeveloped parcels and homes, a landscape-led setting far from dense urban building. It is the kind of place where the village centre is close at hand and the land around you still feels open.

The field covers 2,342 m² and lies in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. A long frontage runs along a footpath beside the land. It is an uncomplicated starting point for a home of your own in authentic village surroundings.

Beyond the village, the neighbouring village of Lageia is a short drive away, and so is Kalavasos Lake, a natural spot for an unhurried afternoon by the water. Picture a home here, with Vavla's centre close by and open land around it. Well worth a visit.
