For Sale : € 50,000

Description
A gentle stroll from the historic heart of Nicosia within the walls, this plot sits in Panagia, a residential quarter where everyday life is close at hand. Cafés, restaurants and local shops are all within walking distance, so a morning coffee or an evening meal out rarely calls for the car.

The land lies among residential developments and has direct road access. It falls within an urban-centre planning zone, which places it inside the fabric of the city rather than on its edges.

Owning ground here means being part of a neighbourhood where the old city's character and the comforts of modern urban life sit side by side, each only a few minutes away on foot. The sale is of a 1/2 share of the plot.

A place in Panagia, with the old city as a neighbour.
