Description
A short stroll from the centre of Asgata, this field puts village life right on your doorstep. Cafés and restaurants are within walking distance, and the neighbourhood around it is a mix of homes and open parcels of land, giving the setting an easy, settled village feel.

The land covers 1,961 m² and sits in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. It fronts a registered road, so it has direct road access. That is a sizeable piece of ground on which to shape a home around your own plans.

Picture mornings that begin with a walk into the village centre for coffee, and children setting off to school on foot, since schools are within walking distance too. For the weekly shop, supermarkets are a short drive away.

A residential field so close to the heart of Asgata offers the chance to build a home that is part of the village's everyday rhythm from the very first day.
