Description
Village life in Agioi Vavatsinias keeps its own gentle rhythm, and this residential field sits close to the church of Agioi Anargyroi. The setting is open and unhurried: undeveloped parcels of land around it, with a handful of homes scattered among them.

The field covers 2,342 m² and lies in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. Picture a family house taking shape here, part of a small village community, with the church as a familiar neighbour and the open land all around.

The wider area rewards those who love the outdoors and traditional village charm. Kionia peak, green spaces, cafés and restaurants, and the neighbouring villages of Ora and Melini are a short drive away, while the heritage village of Fikardou and the Transfiguration of the Saviour Church are within a longer drive.

The land has no direct road access.

For anyone drawn to a tranquil village lifestyle, this is a residential plot in a setting that still feels close to the land.
