Description
Just outside Lympia, in the Nicosia district, lies a field of 1,273 m² in a setting where open, undeveloped parcels sit alongside several residential developments. It is a place where the village and its newer homes meet, with open land still all around.

The field lies within a residential zone, which gives it room for a home of up to two floors. Picture shaping a house of your own here, with the village life of Lympia within reach and the open ground of the surrounding parcels as your neighbours.

Lympia's village centre, with its everyday shops, is a short drive away, and the neighbouring communities of Koshi and Aradippou are also a short drive from the land. The field has no direct road access.

An uncomplicated piece of residential land in a village setting, waiting for the home you have in mind.
