Description
Outside the village of Drymou in the Paphos district, this agricultural field covers 8,027 m² and has direct road access along one of its boundaries. The land around it is made up of other farmland and undeveloped parcels, giving it a fully rural setting. Zoned for agriculture, the land can be used for farming or planting. Drymou's village centre and the neighbouring village of Simou are both a short drive away, and main roads are within a drive. This is a sizeable, straightforward field in the Drymou countryside.
