For Sale : € 40,000

Description
Set on raised ground in Tsakistra, this vineyard looks out towards the mountains. It sits close to the village church, among family homes old and new. Here authentic village life carries on just beyond the boundary.

The land covers 1,896 m². It is roughly rectangular and partly flat, partly sloping. Public roads run along two of its sides, so it has direct road access. It lies in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. Neighbouring it is a group of mid-level houses alongside long-established village homes, and further vineyards and farmland spread across the surrounding area.

Picture the vines around you and the mountains on the horizon, with the church and the heart of the village within easy reach. Kampos is a short drive away, and so is the Kykkos Monastery, a place of deep heritage close to home.

An inviting, uncomplicated plot where vineyard, village and mountain views come together, ready for the home you have in mind.
