Description
Dierona, in the Limassol district, is home to this residential field of 1,540 m², a sizeable piece of land with room for a home of your own.

Its residential zoning gives the land a clear purpose. Picture your plans taking shape here: a home designed around the way you want to live, with enough land around it to give it room. For anyone who has wanted to begin with a plot of their own rather than settle for a finished house, this land is a place to start.

Everyday comforts are within easy reach. Restaurants and cafés are a short drive away, and so is Arakapas, so an evening out or a trip for errands never has to be a long journey.

A field in Dierona with residential zoning and the space to build the home you have in mind.
