For Sale : € 36,000

Description
Village life sets the tone for this field in Agioi Vavatsinias, which lies close to the centre of the village. Around it, open undeveloped parcels sit alongside a few residential homes, giving the area a settled, unhurried feel.

The land measures 1,673 m² and falls within a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. Picture a house shaped around your own plans, with the village centre close by and a school within walking distance for everyday routines.

When the weekend comes, Kionia peak is a short drive away, and the heritage site of Fikardou is within reach for a day out. The field has no direct road access.

A place where a home can take shape, with the rhythm of village life close at hand.
