Description
Village life sets the tone here. This residential field lies close to the centre of Gerasa, with its restaurants and cafés within an easy walk, while farmland and open, undeveloped parcels give the surroundings a calm, rural feel.

The land measures 732 m² and sits in a residential zone, leaving room for a home of up to two floors. It has direct road access along a public road and also fronts a public footpath, so arriving and getting about on foot are both straightforward.

Picture a home that lets you step out for a morning coffee in the village, then come back to open countryside around you. The neighbouring villages of Apsiou and Apesia are a short drive away, as is the Koumana nature spot for slower afternoons outdoors. Everyday shops, schools and bus stations are a drive away.

It offers a way of living set to the gentler rhythm of the Limassol countryside, with the village centre close by and room around you to make a home your own.
