For Sale : € 20,900

Description
Just a short stroll from the heart of Trimiklini, this residential field lies among village homes and open parcels, with the Kourris river close by. Shops and schools are within walking distance, so the small errands of everyday life stay easy and unhurried.

The land runs alongside a registered road on one side, which gives it direct road access. Its residential zoning offers room for a home of up to two floors, a chance to shape a house around the gentle rhythm of village life.

Imagine mornings that begin with a walk to the village centre, and weekends spent exploring nearby Saittas, Moniatis and Kouka, each a short drive away, with restaurants, cafés and green spaces also within easy reach by car. It is an unpretentious setting with real village character, where a new home could settle in naturally among its neighbours.

The sale is for a 1/3 share of the field.
