Description
Set in the farmland outside Ineia village in the Paphos district, this field covers 9,365 m² and lies among other agricultural and undeveloped parcels. The village centre and neighbouring Drouseia are both a short drive away. Part of the land is zoned for agriculture and can be used for farming and planting. Another part lies within a protection zone. The land has no direct road access. It is a sizeable piece of rural land in an agricultural landscape.
