Description
Two adjoining fields make up this landholding in Pano Kivides, in the Limassol countryside, close to the village of Agios Amvrosios. Together they cover 7,359 m², and the land around them is made up of other undeveloped parcels, giving a landscape-led setting away from built-up areas.

The land lies within a protection zone. It has no direct road access. The village of Agios Therapon is also in the wider area. Two neighbouring parcels held together as one sizeable piece of countryside land.
