Description
In the open countryside outside Pano Lefkara village lies a field of 4,014 m², set among agricultural and undeveloped parcels of land. The surroundings are shaped by fields rather than by dense development, and the villages of Kato Lefkara and Kato Drys are a short drive away.

The land falls within a protection zone. It has no direct road access. What it offers is a sizeable piece of Lefkara countryside, held as a plain, uncomplicated parcel of land in a rural setting. It is a large field in the farmland around one of the best-known villages in the Larnaca hills.
