For Sale : € 9,750

Description
Village life in Meniko is close at hand from this residential field, which sits a short way from the village centre and not far from the Serrahis River. Around it, homes stand alongside parcels of land not yet built on, so the neighbourhood is part settled and part still open ground. The land is zoned for residential use, so there is room for a home, and up to three floors may be built. It has road frontage on two of its sides, which gives it direct road access. Daily needs reach beyond the village too. Schools are a short drive away, and so is neighbouring Paliometocho. The sale is for an 11/30 share of the field. Close to the heart of Meniko, it is a place to picture a home of your own taking shape.
