For Sale : € 6,000

Description
In the farming countryside of Klirou, in the Nicosia district, lies an agricultural field of 1,004 m². The parcels around it are agricultural and undeveloped land, so the setting is shaped by fields rather than dense development. The villages of Filani and Politiko are in the surrounding area.

Its agricultural zoning suits farming and planting, and the field could be a practical addition to an existing agricultural holding. The land has no direct road access. It is a compact parcel of farmland within the Klirou area.
