For Sale : € 4,250

Description
Open farmland and undeveloped parcels surround this modest field on the edge of Alona, a short drive from the village centre and its everyday comforts. The neighbouring villages of Alithinou and Platanistasa are also a short drive away, so the wider rural community is close at hand.

At 669 m², the land is a compact holding in an industrial zone, set among agricultural fields with a rural outlook all around. It lies within a protected area for wild birds. The land has no direct road access.

A small, honest piece of the Nicosia countryside, with open fields on every side and village life nearby.
