Description
Set among farmland on the edge of Pentalia village, this agricultural field covers 1,719 m². It has frontage onto a road, which gives it direct road access for working, planting and tending the land. The parcels around it are agricultural or undeveloped, so the setting is open countryside away from dense building. The agricultural zoning suits farming and planting.

The centre of Pentalia is a short drive away, and the Limassol - Paphos Motorway serves the wider region. A sizeable field of farmland with its own road access, in a working rural landscape.
