Description
Village life sets the scene for this field within Dora, in the Limassol district. Around it, family homes sit beside open parcels of land, giving the area a settled residential feel with room still left to breathe.

The land measures 1,673 m² and lies in a residential zone, offering room for a home of up to two floors. It has direct road access, so planning a new house can begin from a practical footing. Picture morning coffee in the village and evenings in a home designed around the way you live, on a plot large enough to shape the layout you have in mind.

Schools are a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Mousere and Kidasi. Further afield, the wider region holds the heritage site of Petra tou Romiou, a reminder of the history that surrounds this corner of Cyprus.

A sizeable residential plot in an established village, where a new home in Dora can start to take shape.
